

Janet van der Merwe

Janet van der Merwe is an experienced Industrial Engineer with a demonstrated history of working in the services industry. She has a strong focus on continuous improvement, operational excellence and decision support in organisations. She currently works for Multiply, which forms part of MMI Holdings Limited. She lives in Hartbeespoort in North West with her husband and two daughters. She is a fan of optimisation, decision support, and fitness.

<https://about.me/janetvandermerwe>

