

Lethabo Riba

Lethabo Riba is a Business Solutions Intern at a Railway company called Gibela-Rail. She is also enrolled with the University of Pretoria where she is currently busy with her BSc (Hons) Applied Science, Industrial Systems. She graduated from the University of Johannesburg, with a Bachelor of Technology degree (BTech) in Industrial Engineering, 2018. Interests include novel reading, jogging and adventurous activities. She is described as very ambitious, highly motivated and energetic. She possesses strong communication and interpersonal skills. She has the power to lead with the greatest respect, dignity, patience and care for her team players. This is a woman who believes in handling difficult situations with an “out of the box” approach.

