

Nandie van Oosten

Nandie van Oosten is the Supply Chain Design Manager at Pepsico South Africa (Simba). She is passionate about supply chain management with experience in business optimisation, logistics, distribution, network modelling and supply chain management. She completed her BEng (Hons) in 2011 and her master's in industrial engineering (cum laude) in 2016. She is also a registered professional industrial engineer (PrEng) and completed her CSCP (Certified Supply Chain Professional) through Apics in 2012.

