

Mulatedzi Freddy Tshikala

Mulatedzi Freddy Tshikala has a BEng Industrial Engineering (University of Pretoria), BEng (Hons) Industrial Engineering (University of Pretoria), Master Program in Supply Chain Management (University of Pretoria) and European Master Logistician – EMLog (European Logistics Board)

His professional experience includes working for various companies such as Eskom, Airports Company South Africa, AfriSam, PPC, Wescoal and DHL Express in various positions ranging from Engineer In Training, Airports Planner, Group Logistics Analyst, Group Logistics Specialist, Group Logistics Manager, Sub Sahara Africa Engineering Manager: East and Central Africa. He also had international working experience in the African Continent while working for DHL Express. He led and managed a team of multinational professionals in Kenya, Uganda, Djibouti, Cameroon, Democratic Republic of Congo, Tanzania, Ethiopia as well as Gabon.

He is currently an Executive for a Logistics and Engineering Services company.

