

Nwabisa Ntiyane (Co-opted)

Nwabisa Ntiyane is a versatile Operations Executive with comprehensive experience in analysing company processes to implement robust plans aimed at improving quality, productivity, and efficiency for the attainment of the organisation's strategic objectives and goals. Highly competent in training and developing high-performance teams to maximise productivity, boosting the aptitude to construct favourable relations with key stakeholders that can greatly influence the organisation's profit margins.

She regards herself as a transformational leader and exceptional communicator with in-depth knowledge and understanding of the organisation's multifaceted operations, leveraging the ability to lead the implementation of business transformation initiatives tailored to ensuring that the company maintains competitive success.

