

Project Management Principles and Practices (Online)

Presented by Graduate School of Technology Management,
University of Pretoria

5 ECSA CPD points

Project Management (PM) has become the fastest growing form of management. How should projects be planned and controlled? What are the pitfalls? What are the latest trends? These are some of the issues that are addressed in this course.

Upon successful completion, you will be able to utilise PM tools and techniques to manage projects in the work environment. The Project Management Principles and Practices online short course earns credit towards the Programme in Project Management (PPM).

Course content

- Introduction to projects and project management
- Product life cycles and phases
- Initiating and defining the project
- Identifying work, responsibilities and roles
- Project time management
- Critical chain project management
- Project control
- Work authorisation
- Alternative computer systems available on the market (no hands-on computer training included in the three-day course)

Learning outcomes

- After successfully completing this course, you will be able to
- initiate projects, identify stakeholders and develop scope statements for projects in their work environment
 - manage scope changes
 - plan the life cycles of projects in their work environment
 - identify work packages, and the responsibilities and roles of stakeholders
 - schedule projects, allocate resources, estimate costs and control progress of delivery
 - explain the benefits and limitations of systems such as MS Project and others, and
 - explain the basics of critical chain project management and of systems to authorise project work.

Who should enrol?

This course is ideal for persons involved in or associated with projects, whether as project managers, planners, project team members or senior managers. The course is suitable for all sectors of business and government.

Course fees

R6 910.09 per delegate (VAT incl.)

Course fees must be paid in full 14 days prior to course start dates. Proof of payment can be submitted to enrolments@enterprises.up.ac.za.

Admission requirements

Prospective delegates should at least have National Senior Certificate (Grade 12).

Accreditation and certification

Enterprises University of Pretoria (Pty) Ltd is wholly owned by the University of Pretoria. As a public higher education institution, the University of Pretoria functions in accordance to the Higher Education Act 101 of 1997. Enterprises University of Pretoria offers short courses on behalf of the University and these short courses are not credit-bearing, and do not lead to formal qualifications on the National Qualifications Framework (NQF) – unless stated otherwise. Delegates who successfully complete a short course and comply with the related assessment criteria (where applicable) are awarded certificates of successful completion and/or attendance by the University of Pretoria.

Registration and enquiries

Course coordinator

Immaculate Ramokgadi

Tel: +27 (0)12 434 2623

Email: emmaculate.ramokgadi@enterprises.up.ac.za

Course leader

Prof Herman Steyn

Faculty of Engineering, Built Environment and Information Technology, Graduate school of Technology Management

Get access to world-class course presenters from Africa's only master's programme accredited by the Global Accreditation Centre of the PMI (USA).

Online course

Shifting knowledge to insight

