

Waldo Viljoen

Waldo Viljoen is currently working as Head of Customer Services and IT – Business Applications at Saint-Gobain Sub-Saharan Africa. He is an accomplished and Professional Engineer, registered with ECSA, with over 10 years of distinguished performance in Business application management, Business Process Management (BPM), Logistics Execution, Supply Chain Management, Analytics, Business Optimisation, Management of projects and people. He has in-depth knowledge and experience with international exposure in various countries such as Poland, Romania, Czech Republic, Slovakia and Netherlands. He is also Managing Director of various companies as well as the current President for SAIIE.

